Camp Joy started the Camp Joy Teen Fuel leadership program in May 2021. God blessed this unique 2-week, 12-person class program well beyond what we ever thought.

Others asked for FUEL versions to be crafted for Christian schools, adult church conferences, and other leadership teams.

Retreat Speaker

John Moore, former Baptist World Mission church planter, is passionate about the local church even above camp ministry. The New Hope Baptist Church plant in Johannesburg bought their own building, by the power of God without American money, in the most expensive city in Africa. John created the FUEL Teen Leadership and FUEL Christian School Leadership programs. FUEL graduates are advancing their youth groups and schools and want adults to learn the same truths God used to transform their lives.

Retreat Quotes

- “I like John Moore. As a fundamentalist, he is unique but he’s right. He hits things I need but never heard. I went to a Christian school but I needed this.”
- “I came to this Pastors/Deacons retreat to find out what the teens in my church were excited about after they came to a Camp Joy FUEL – Teen Leadership summer class. It turns out that the Biblical material the teens were learning were things I needed in my life too..”
